'Broken' is a new drama on BBC1 on Tuesday evenings at 9.00. I watched the first episode and it is based around a catholic priest working amidst great poverty. It is extremely insightful into the way some people barely survive and the things they do to feed their families. Also it shows our Social Security system and from what I know from stories I have heard it paints an accurate picture. I commend it to you as well worth finding on 'catch up TV' if you missed it. I hope the following episodes are as good.

Setting God's People Free At the next Area Forum (joint meeting of the four Deanery synods) we shall be discussing Lay Ministry in our Episcopal Area. There is an open invitation to all of us to attend. This is an opportunity to discuss the possibility of diocesan training and recognition of ministries like pastoral ministry, worship leader, intercessor, healing ministry, evangelism etc. If you would like to contribute then do come along and let your views be known.

We meet on 7th June at 7.30pm at St John's Church, Baildon (refreshments from 7pm)

The Place of Welcome at St. Matthew's launches on Friday 7th July from 10.00 to 12.00 and it will then be open at that same time every week.

We have a team of volunteers for Friday mornings, but there are other ways of helping too. It would be lovely to be able to offer some home baked biscuits or cake, but we don't want to be overwhelmed with this, as numbers are likely to be small, especially during the start-up period.

We have put a baking sign-up list on the notice board at St. Matthew's. (St. Saviour's people could support by liaising through the clergy or via Helen Ludkin). If anyone is willing please put your name against a particular date and then just show up at about 10.00 on the Friday concerned to bring your contribution. Please also spread the word in our villages.

Quiz night 9th June Please get your tickets in advance for this great event so that we have numbers for catering. Enjoy various quizzes, a pie & pea supper and some fantastic raffle prizes (including vouchers for M&S, Stephen Smith's, The Ling-Bob and gifts from other local businesses). Tickets, from Ian & Joan Slater, Helen Ludkin & Beverly Hurst, are £5. All proceeds in aid of Joan & Ian's work in Tanzania.

Meeting of Pastoral Care Coordinators There will be a meeting for all available St. Saviour's Pastoral Care Co-ordinators on Tuesday 6th June at 2.00pm at the Vicarage. Please come if you can so that we can support one another and monitor developments. Bob and Mavis

Harden and Wilsden Mission Support Group invite you to 'It's Magic', an evening of entertainment by members of Bradford Magic Circle on Sat June 24th, 7pm at St. Matthew's. Tickets from Margaret Harrison, Lorna Pickersgill, Harden and Wilsden Post Offices. Adults £5, children £2. Proceeds for the Leprosy Mission.

Harden Gala Can you help with our stall at this year's gala? If so, please speak to Deborah or June Thompson.

Churches Together Concert with the Airedale Male Voice Choir. Thanks to everyone who helped to make this such a memorable event. The concert raised a total of £952 for Christian Aid. Sandra Haigh

Crafts for Pick'n'mix. The next session for preparing craft materials will be on Friday 9 June at 2pm at St. Matthew's. All are welcome. Tea and cakes will be provided. Liz
