From Bob and Suzanne We were so delighted to welcome about 60 of you from the Benefice on Wednesday evening to Bob's Induction Service. It meant so much to us that you came. Thank you! We also thought you might like to know how we have spent your very generous gift – you may or may not know that the gift included some place mats by Bingley artist Jane Fielder which remind us of the Bingley area. Also, the Vicarage here had an empty fireplace in the lounge with no gas fire, or gas point, or flue, which left us with electric options only. We found that it is now possible to obtain electric stoves which have a great real flame and smoke effect and so we have treated ourselves to one, so your gift warms us each evening when we sit in the lounge. Do come and see sometime! Our prayers for you all. Love Bob and Suzanne

Bob's Induction Nov 22nd

More than 50 well-wishers from the benefice travelled to Sheffield Heeley on Wednesday evening for a wonderful bilingual service in English and Nepalese, followed by generous hospitality. The service was unusual in that the legal ceremony was offset by children's songs and was accompanied by a band. Just up Bob's street! For those who were unable to attend, the gospel reading from Matthew 4: 18 -25, is on the right.
